

Additional tips when applying for Addiction Medicine Board Exam

- When listing a verifying person on the practice portion of the application, he/she will get an email for EACH of the sections with his/her name. So, one person may get multiple emails and MUST verify and answer EACH email, not just one.
- If there are questions on the application after it is submitted, after emailing APBM, they may allow you to submit additional information on a Word document.